DEAR SIRS,

We beg to intimate that, for Family reasons, we are amalgamating with Messrs D. BALLANTYNE & Co., LTD., March Street Mills, Peebles, and that the businesses will in future be carried on as one concern.

The designation of the new Company will be D. Ballantyne, Brothers & Co., Ltd., and the formalities prior to the registration and use of this name are presently proceeding. Until these are completed will you kindly note that on and after 1st February all correspondence should be addressed to us at March Street Mills, Peebles, which is to be the Registered Office of the new Company, and from which all correspondence will in future be conducted.

It should be noted that, until further instructions are issued, all goods on order for us should continue to be delivered at Waverley Mills, Innerleithen.

The management and the policy of the two businesses will remain unchanged, and all contracts and obligations will be taken over by the new Company.

We take this opportunity of thanking our customers for their past support and of assuring them that the qualities, &c., of our Cloths will be maintain in the future.

We are,

Yours faithfully,

BALLANTYNE BROT
